

Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre

Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre is a public university specialised in music and drama, offering education on Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral levels.

Strong international network

Student centered approach

Classical and contemporary genres

Quick facts

Number of students: 673

Number of international students: 110

Academic staff: 157

Partners: approx. 125 European institutions

Study languages: Estonian, English

Website: www.ema.edu.ee

Focus areas

Preservation of values of Estonian national culture and academic traditions of the European music and theatre education combined to openness to the newest developments in the world of music and theatre

Study programmes

Education in western classical music, traditional (folk) music, jazz, improvisation, composition (incl. audiovisual and electroacoustic composition), electronic music, conducting, cultural management, musicology, music education, interpretation pedagogy and dramatic art (acting, stage directing, playwriting)

E-learning possibilities

Focused on developing e-learning, plans of investing into a video conference system in 2016

International cooperation

Member of several international networks (e.g. Nordplus music networks, AEC (The Association Européenne des Conservatoires) and an active participant of educational programmes financed by the European Union

GLOMUS cooperation

Staff representation at Camps in Tanzania (2013) and Malaysia (2015)

GLOMUS contact person: Hanneleen Pihlak, hanneleen@ema.edu.ee